DEMONSTRATION AT SHANGHAI.

Allois March out, but Are Received With Great Friendliness by the Chinese.

Special Cable Dispatch to THE SUN.

LONDON, Oct. 11.—Despatches from Shanghai describe the sequel to a score about a Chinese attack on Oct. 7. The foreign troops advanced during the night against the Chinese camp near the arsenal.

Some correspondents say the advance was made with the intention of seizing the arsenal. While others declare that it was for the purpose of meeting the expected attack of the French troops.

The French troops with artillery formed the advance guard, while the reserve was made up of G. Manns, Japanese, British Indian and local volunteers. When the troops reached the camp the Chinese display of great friendliness, and after receiving all night the foreign troops returned to the city in the morning.

The Chinese force in the neighborhood consists of 5,000 men with 100 guns. There are 1,500 men at Wusung and 15,000 additional day's march away.

According to the Post's correspondent there is no likelihood of disturbances unless the foreigners make further demonstrations.

POISON HER USUAL WEAPON.

Said That Annie Floyd Was Mixed Up In Another Poison Case Four Years Ago.

Hempstead, L. I., Oct. 10.—Annie Floyd, the alleged poisoner of Jacob A. Roberts, was examined today before Justice Gifford and held to await the trial of the Grand Jury. Mrs. Roberts testified that a box of rat poison was kept in the kitchen closet and that the woman knew it.

It was about three years ago that the woman was examined by a jury. At that time she was charged with poisoning her husband, James P. Nieman, and another man, John P. Nieman.

The woman was examined by a jury and found guilty. She was sentenced to prison for three years. She was released after two years.

FATAL COAL STRIKE RIOT.

ONE MAN KILLED AND ABOUT THIRTY HURT NEAR HAZLETON.

Effort to Close the Onondaga Colliery of the Cross Creek Company Brings On an Early Morning Fight—Great Parade of Strikers in Scranton—Convention Meets To-day.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 10.—A clash between the strikers and deputies guarding the colliery hereabouts came to-day at the Onondaga colliery of the Cross Creek Coal Company. One deputy was killed instantly, another wounded mortally and sixteen company employees and twelve strikers more or less severely injured. Ralph Mills, aged 55, of Beaver Meadow, was the deputy killed. He was shot between the shoulder and the head instantly. He is survived by a wife and four children. George Keimer, aged 35, married, also of Beaver Meadow, another deputy, was shot in the head and taken to the State Hospital here. He will probably die. Among the wounded are Supt. Edgar Kullback and John Rolland of the Cross Creek Coal Company.

The shooting came in consequence of a premeditated attack upon the colliery. The Onondaga colliery has been kept in operation all through the strike. The men being satisfied with the wages and treatment they received have resisted all attempts of the strikers to cause them to join their ranks. They continued at work, but in order to escape the pickets the strikers posted on all the roads leading to the workings have been going there as early as 3 o'clock in the morning.

The strikers' latest victory is George E. Callender, who has been shot on the night of the 10th. Callender was shot by a bullet from a hotel. When the strikers returned and saw the bullet they ordered to shoot the hotel in a rage. The strikers' latest victory is George E. Callender, who has been shot on the night of the 10th. ## HE TRUCKS BUSINESS MEN.

Swindler Has Profited Exceedingly By Delivering Fake Face to C. O. D.

A new swindler, the simplicity of whose method has gained him a ready-made market, has been making a whole lot of business men in the last few weeks. He appears in a downtown office where there are two members of a firm or where more than one person has desk room, choosing a time when one of the tenants is out.

HELEN SOUTHGATE'S STORY.

WRITES TO A DENVER PRIEST THAT SHE DID NOT LOVE BARBOUR.

Her Version of the Shooting in a Brooklyn Hotel Sent to Her Former Spiritual Adviser at Sacred Heart College—Life Was Sweet to Her and She Did Not Want to Die.

DENVER, Col., Oct. 10.—The Rev. Donalio Pantalone of the Sacred Heart College, who was Helen Southgate's spiritual adviser, received a letter from her yesterday telling of her shooting with Henry Grosvenor Barbour, who shot her and then killed himself in a Brooklyn hotel. The letter is dated New York, Oct. 4, and says:

"DEAR FATHER: Father McCarthy of St. Francis Xavier's called on me this morning and requested at the same time that I should write to you. I had just left, so he came here to my aunt's, where I am staying. Oh, father, how can I begin to tell you of this terrible affair! It is frightful. The plain truth is terrible enough, but these awful reports!"

Vardon Arrives and Taylor Leaves—Amateurs Meet at Scranton.

Harry Vardon arrived from his Western trip yesterday, having stopped over at Scranton, where he beat the best ball of the local amateurs in two matches. He said that he had been most handsomely received by the golfing gentlemen at Chicago. The open championship had suited him very well, but Vardon would not dwell at length on any features of the play. However, he said that 315 at Wheaton was fully equal to 300 at old St. Andrews, which is an indication that Vardon thinks if he had played as well in Scotland as he did in America, he would at least have tied with Taylor. Vardon will leave this morning to resume his exhibition tour. He will soon be back in England, where he will soon have scored a century mark. On Friday and Saturday Vardon will play at the Iron Bridge Club, at West Newton, Mass. He will remain in the Bay State for a fortnight, playing at the Oakley Country Club, Oct. 12 and 13, and at the Myopia Hunt Club, Oct. 14 and 15. Vardon will then return to his home at West Newton, Mass. He will then return to his home at West Newton, Mass. He will then return to his home at West Newton, Mass.

J. H. Taylor, open champion of Great Britain, sailed for England yesterday on the Teutonic. He is expected to return to this country to play exhibition matches and exploit a golf club business. Taylor is the winner of the Mid-South Golf Club of Richmond, Va. which he is under engagement as professional.

Phil Flood has received 121 entries for the golf tournament at the Iron Bridge Club. The tournament will be held on Saturday and Sunday. The prize money is $1,000.
